ORDER

The judgment under review was passed dismissing the writ petition as only a show cause notice was challenged. While dismissing the writ petition, the Pollution Control Board was also directed to dispose of the matter as expeditiously as possible. Now, it is submitted that the matter was disposed of. Therefore, it is for the aggrieved party to challenge that order. There is no question of reviewing the judgment or condoning the delay in filing the review petition.

Both delay condonation petition and review petition are dismissed.
